Who Is This Vendor Assessment For?

NelsonHall's Transforming Wealth & Asset Management Services Vendor Assessment for Infosys is a comprehensive assessment of Infosys's wealth and asset management services offerings and capabilities designed for:

- Sourcing managers monitoring the capabilities of existing suppliers of intelligent automation processes and identifying vendor suitability for wealth and asset management services RFPs
- Vendor marketing, sales and business managers looking to benchmark themselves against their peers
- Financial analysts and investors specializing in the support services sector.

Key Findings & Highlights

Infosys began delivering professional services to brokerage firms in 2002. Over the next several years, these services expanded to consulting and technology services for wealth management firms. In 2004 Infosys began delivering W&A BPS services to a U.S.-based global custodian. Services included fund administration reconciliation and data management.

Infosys has added services and partners to expand its W&A services business (See Delivery section for detail). Today, its W&A services business is focused on consulting and design/implementation services. Recent service additions include cloud migration, Fintech product consulting/implementation, and platform renovation/BPO. Recent partnerships have focused on:

- Platform providers including Fiserv and Avaloq
- Hyperscalers including AWS, Azure, and Google
