Key Findings & Highlights

This NelsonHall vendor assessment analyzes TCS' offerings and capabilities in cyber resiliency services.

TCS has organized its Cyber Security Practice around 'anticipate', 'withstand', and 'recover':

- Anticipate to identify the clients' critical components, what could go wrong, and how to build a cyber resiliency strategy to reduce the organizations' risk.
- Withstand to provide managed security services, including vulnerability management, managed detection (SOC services), and identity services.
- Recover to respond to security events.
